48th Annual Track & Field Championships

PROGRAM

— Thursday, May 23rd, 1963 —

MEWATA STADIUM

CALGARY

Message from the President . . .

It is the purpose of the school to train and produce well-rounded citizens with all facets of their natures nourished and developed as far as possible. The athletic program in the schools makes a real contribution to this all round-development. Here the student learns to strive until it hurts, and still to persevere. Here he develops co-ordination of mind and muscle until ultimately he comes to possess a well-tuned body responsive to his will. Here he learns to strive with all his might to win, but never at the sacrifice of good sportsmanship and high moral standards. Here, too, he learns to accept defeat, which at times comes to all of us, with good grace and the fortitude to try again.

Contrary to the opinion of some, participation in sport does not necessarily mean deterioration in academic standing. Many of the best scholars are active in the sports program and others have actually shown improvement in their school work after they became interested in sport.

Anything becomes a vice when carried to excess, but, so long as the sports program is kept in its proper relationship to the other purposes of the school, it can, and does, make a definite, valuable, and unique contribution to the training of the citizens of tomorrow.

T. HAROLD FOUNTAIN,
President
Calgary High School Athletic Association

WORD OF APPRECIATION

Sportsmanship, tolerance, and fair play — these are the things that annual track and field programs help to develop. If a student is going to live happily, and satisfactorily, he must learn to get along with his fellow beings. The right kind of sport will help develop the right kind of spirit. It is gratifying to know that for the past forty-seven years the track and field program of Calgary high schools has aimed at the right kind of spirit.

It is with great pleasure that I express, on behalf of the Calgary School Boards and the citizens of Calgary, sincere thanks to the following staff members who for this, the 48th Annual Meet carry on the objectives of the Calgary Boys and Girls Senior High Athletic Associations.
